Why you should use <LabPlus> LIMS software?

- It is simple to use. No computer knowledge is needed.
- No need to do manual paper work for providing diagnostic care services.
- It reduces manpower cost.
- It is compatible for interfacing with test analyzers for auto test processing.
- Fast report generation with digital signature.
- Inbuilt-in add-on features minimize human errors in report.
- Post delivery report amendment process protects from medico-legal cases.
- It is ISO 15189:2012 & NABL standard LIS system.
- It provides the tracking system for monitoring the service.

- Multi-billing facility with remote user connectivity.
- Cash & revenue collection monitoring and tracking system.
- It prohibits all possibilities of revenue leakage in counter.
- Strong securities prohibit tempering of information system.
- It carefully handles all real-life problems in the diagnostic industries.
- Analytical MIS reports are used as tools for management.
- One stop solution for patient management, cash & collection management, test & workflow management, outsourcing lab test management, franchisee & business associates management, marketing management , stores & inventory management etc.
- It is cheap, economic and affordable.
- It is fit for small to large category laboratories.
- Using of high-end database in back-end provides zero(0) percent downtime.